5 determined that, “a central History Office, properly
6 staffed and resourced, can become an essential ally
7 for the Department’s senior staff at Headquarters
8 and in the field.”.

9 (3) The establishment of a History Office in the 10 Department pursuant to an executive memorandum
11 of the Department, dated April 10, 2020, is a vital 12 contribution to honoring veterans and improving the 13 understanding of how they served the United States.

14 (4) Department of Veterans Affairs Directive
15 7777, titled “Implementation of the VA History
16 Program”, was issued on February 9, 2021, and es-
17 tablished the policies, responsibilities, and manage-
18 ment directions for the Department of Veterans Af-
19 fairs History Program.

20 (5) The centennial year of the Department is 21 2030 and such year is a goal for establishing a ro-
